She is the Bhichai and Khunying Charoye Rattakul Scholar for Peace and Conflict Resolution, an award-winning diversity champion, and a leadership coach to social innovators around the world.

Having travelled in more than 30 countries and in her social entrepreneurship work in 15 developing societies, the 18 years of experience and lessons learned are now accessible through her commercially published book: "Provocateurs not Philanthropists: Turning Good Intentions into Global Impact (Changemakers Books: 2022). This book will equip leaders, organizations, workplaces, and businesses with practical lessons in leadership, strategic mindset, engaging communities, and legacies-building for sustainable social transformation they could use right away.

Her second book: "Flourish In Purpose: 75 Micro-lessons on Well-being, Leadership, and Social Entrepreneurship (Presta Press: 2026)" is based on her life-long lessons and insights as an immigrant, impact leader, and social entrepreneur navigating the complexity of entrepreneurship and leadership in communities.

She is the author and writer of published articles, policy briefs, white papers, and reports on peace and conflict resolution, community-building, sustainability, strategy, governance, and leadership. She writes regularly at The Sentimental Provocateur Newsletter.
